

NASTY WOMEN EXHIBIT MEMPHIS

STILL HERE. STILL FIGHTING.

CALL TO ARTISTS

Nasty Women Memphis is a group exhibition that serves to demonstrate solidarity among artists who identify as or support a Nasty Woman in the face of threats to roll back women's rights, individual rights, and reproductive rights. Last time we were responding to the inauguration, now we respond to the confirmation of Kavanaugh. Now is the perfect time to let out our frustrations through art and use that artwork for positive change.

Not only do we want our voices to be heard, but we also hope the new exhibition will bring more energy to the midterm elections on November 6.

This exhibition also serves as a fundraiser for our local Planned Parenthood! At least 50% of proceeds from all art sales will be donated. The remaining percentage will go back to the artist.

Please send a jpeg or pdf image of the work you would like to submit to nastywomenmemphis@gmail.com. Title the subject line "submission."

In your email, please include the following information:

- Artist name
- Title
- Medium
- Dimensions (all works must be no more than 24" wide)
- Price

If you wish to donate more than 50% of your sale to Planned Parenthood, please include this information in your email as well.

As long as we have the room, all submitted work will be selected! We want all of your voices to be heard!

Once you have received a confirmation email from the Nasty Women Exhibit Memphis curatorial team, your work must be delivered to South Main Artspace Lofts, 138 St. Paul Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee 38126, during the following drop off times:

Saturday, October 13, 2018, 4 pm-5 pm
